

Gardens & Places of Meditation

Corneille Bryan Native Garden
Nestled within residential Stuart Circle, the garden is a serene escape for nature lovers. It features more than 500 species of native plants and is a haven for birdlife.

Gattis Meditation Garden
Overlooking Lake Junaluska, this spot offers a welcome resting place for visitors on their walk around the lake.

Inspiration Point
Offering panoramic views of the lake and mountains, this scenic destination adjacent to Lambuth Inn engages all in quiet meditation, prayer and study.

Lake Junaluska Biblical Garden
Created in 2007, the garden incorporates plants mentioned in the Bible, including herbs, figs, pomegranates and vines.

Lake Junaluska Cross
The iconic Cross, constructed in 1922, serves as a symbol of hope and light.

Lake Junaluska Rose Walk
The Rose Walk features more than 200 hybrid tea, grandiflora and floribunda roses.

Memorial Chapel and Prayer Labyrinth
Memorial Chapel was built in 1949 as a memorial to southeastern United Methodists who served in the armed forces during World War II. The outdoor labyrinth provides a walking path for prayer.

Susanna Wesley Garden
Named for John Wesley's mother, the garden is a place for prayer and meditation as well as a unique venue for weddings.

Stuart Spring
Stuart Spring serves as a peace and reconciliation memorial, providing a quiet place for prayer and reflection.

Recreation & Dining

Cherokee IV
Docked behind the Harrell Center, the Cherokee IV offers seasonal boat tours to learn more about Lake Junaluska history while enjoying a peaceful ride around the lake.

J. B. Ivey Playground and Wilson Complex
Open to the public, the J. B. Ivey Playground, adjacent to the Wilson Complex, is a place where children can explore and have fun outside.

Lake Junaluska Dam and Waterfall Park
The Lake Junaluska Dam was constructed between 1911 and 1913. The area below the dam offers lots of space for picnics and fishing.

Lake Junaluska Golf Course
The historic Lake Junaluska Golf Course, built in 1919, offers 18 holes and scenic mountain and lake views.

Lake Junaluska Outfitters
Rent a paddleboard, canoe or kayak and glide over the water under a broad blue sky, or splash in the outdoor pool. Spend the afternoon playing mini golf, tennis or shuffleboard with family and friends.

Nanci Weldon Memorial Gym
This open-air gym offers the ideal location for hosting outdoor events and activities.

Shackford Firepit
Lake Junaluska's firepit below Shackford Hall offers the perfect spot for roasting marshmallows with friends and family.

Turbeville Footbridge
Built in 1988, the Turbeville Footbridge enables visitors to complete the shorter 2.3-mile path that circles the lake.

Junaluska Gifts & Grounds
Located in the Harrell Center, Junaluska Gifts & Grounds is your destination for gifts and coffee at Lake Junaluska. Shop for unique gifts or grab a latte, sandwich or ice cream cone and sit along our café walk.

Crepe & Custard
Located in the Kern Center, Crepe & Custard offers breakfast, savory and sweet crepes, and rich custard ice cream. Enjoy modern cabin-themed indoor dining or dine al fresco on the pet-friendly patio overlooking the lake.

York Dining Commons & Lakeside Deck
York Dining Commons is the primary location where youth event meals are served. A new outdoor deck added in 2020 overlooks the water.
